George Lamphere Takes Lovely Bride In Church Ceremony

In a double-ring candlelight ceremony performed Friday evening in First Methodist church, Miss Gladys Parrish, of Santa Monica, became the bride of Mr. George S. Lamphere, son of Mrs. Mary F. Lamphere, of 1628 Elm ave. Rev. C. E. Ruckman officiated in the presence of intimate friends of the couple. The bride and bridegroom wore matching tan tailored suits and her accessories were powder blue complemented by a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mary Gardner, of Santa Monica, was her sister's maid of honor wearing a powder blue suit, with white accessories and Jack Watts, of Los Angeles, attended the bridegroom as best man. Mrs. Gertrude Lingo at the organ played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Mrs. Dorothee Hodges, who sang.

A reception followed in the church parlors and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Lamphere left for a honeymoon at Big Bear Lake. Upon their return they will be at home at 1628 Elm ave. A veteran of four years service in the China-Burma-India theatre, the bridegroom attended Torrance high school, later graduating from Belmont high school and completing his training as a draftsman. He is now employed in Los Angeles.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON AT MILLER HOME
The home of Mrs. John S. Miller, 1628 Fern ave., was the scene of an enjoyable informal luncheon Wednesday afternoon. Red roses decorated the luncheon table set for Mesdames T. T. Babbitt, J. W. Sullivan, M. H. Hussey and the hostess. Bridge followed with Mrs. Hussey as the recipient of a prize for high score.

at the rate of one cent a ticket, in lots of 10, of course. No doubt, it is pointed out, this will prove one of the fastest ways of getting votes. The standings of the contestants will be placed on scoreboards in several merchant's windows throughout the contest. The standings will be erased the last three days of the contest and the winner, "MISS TORRANCE OF 1947" will be announced June 5.

- Here are the rules:
1. Any single girl who resides within the city limits of Torrance; between the ages of 16 and 25; who is not a member of Torrance Junior Woman's club may enter the contest.
  2. Every girl under 21 must have written consent of one parent.
  3. No contestant may drop out once she has entered.
  4. No contestant may transfer her votes to any other contestant.
  5. Contestant's score is based upon the number of votes she can sell. Votes sell for 10 votes for 10 cents. No ticket less than 10 cents. A receipt will be given to contestant each time money is turned over to contest chairman.
  6. All entries must be in by 12 noon, April 21. Contest ends at 12, midnight, May 31.
  7. Judges of the contest will be the Junior Woman's club board; sponsors of the club; contest chairman and one or more local citizens.

Girl Scouts And Brownies Report Easter Egg Hunt

Girl Scout Troop 184, sponsored by First Christian church, was hostess to Brownie Troop 406 at a gala Easter egg hunt arranged Monday in Torrance City park.

Mrs. Gladys Pietzschke, as chairman, was assisted by Mesdames Hutchison, Gertrude Harris and Edna Moffatt, co-leader and committee members, and Mmes. Mavis Cook, Frankie Brown and Vivian Hoffman, leaders and assistants of the Christian church-sponsored Brownie troop.

Members of the hostess troop fashioned the attractive Easter baskets and colored and hid the eggs for the party. Additional features of the affair in which both troops participated, were folk dancing and a treasure hunt. Ice cream and cookies served to more than 40 concluded the festivities.

Norma Gail Shoberg Is Birthday Honoree At Patio Party Here

Norma Gail, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sigfred Shoberg, of Gardena and formerly of this city, was complimented on the occasion of her birthday Sunday when her mother and her aunt, Mrs. A.
